DAINTREE DREAMING

Glimpse into the unique lives of the Kuku Yalanji people, meeting the Indigenous people of Mossman country. Walk with them through the World Heritage-listed Daintree Rainforest on private Kuku Yalangi land on a dreamtime journey, after taking part in a smoking ceremony – which cleanses and wards off bad spirits.

Highlights:

- Walk on private land with the Kuku Yalanji people, on a guided Daintree rainforest walk at Mossman Gorge, known as Manjal Dimbi in local Kuku Yalanji language
- Lunch at Mayi Café and Restaurant, this spot is also well known for its damper scones which you'll get to taste
- Interpretive SEIT Guide with a top-of-the-range vehicle, and return hotel transfers
- Choose from the included Traditional Aboriginal Fishing or Aboriginal Art and Culture experiences

Itinerary:

You'll discover how bush soaps are made, learn how to identify bush-tucker, and discover how native plants have been traditionally used, skills dating more than 50,000 years. After your slow-paced walk taking in every element of the rainforest: the light falling through the fan palms, the subtle sounds of streams trickling over pebbles, the rustle of the scrub-turkey moving his way through the forest floor. Relax to the sounds of the rainforest, as you're served Daintree home-grown tea, paired with a damper scone (an outback foodie favourite).

Lunch is hosted at Mayi Café and Restaurant, Mayi meaning 'edible plants' (also meal or food in general). This place is special as it's operated by the local community within Mossman Gorge Cultural Centre. After lunch you'll have time to explore the gift shop, with the opportunity to buy some Daintree tea or even some Daintree chocolate – it will be hard to resist.

Your afternoon continues with a scenic drive through the Shannonvale Valley, where your knowledgeable guide will share stories of life in the area, the twenty-six Aboriginal tribal groups of the area, the ancient 'super-highways', how resourceful the paper bark tree is, the six seasons of nature, and other Indigenous insights – a journey where mother nature really does the talking.

TRADITIONAL ABORIGINAL FISHING

From: $388 adults / $316 children

Tour Code: SDDF / DAY TOUR

When you arrive at the Kuku Yalanji traditional fishing grounds on Cooya Beach, you'll grab a spear and head out into nature searching for mud crabs and periwinkles. This unique experience is endorsed by Tourism Australia as part of their Discover Aboriginal Experiences program, perfect for those who want an authentic afternoon, connecting with culture amongst nature. You'll be hands-on, gathering bush tucker deep within mangrove trees, where roots intertwine beneath your bare feet as you dig down to find clams. Your teacher shares how his community, the Kubirri Warra people live harmoniously, taking only what they need (not what they want) from the land. Their foraging techniques have been passed down from generation to generation, collecting food for their family and for a cook-up, which you're invited to.
